After this period the minimum salary under Clause 1 becomes payable.
- 2 The weekly salary for Musicians engaged in a production in a theatre with a seating capacity of less than 700 seats on sale shall be two thirds of the Minimum Weekly Production Salary as specified in clause 1.1 for the first 26 weeks of the run of the production. After this period the minimum salary under Clause 1 becomes payable.
- 3 Doubling, trebling and quadrupling payments may be calculated according to the percentage rates and seat capacity set out above. All other terms and conditions of the Agreement including on stage payments and portorage are to apply in full.
- 4 If the production only engages one Musician the minimum salary under Clause 1.1 is payable for the duration of the run.

APPENDIX 2 – CODE OF PRACTICE REGARDING THE USE OF ELECTRONIC MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

The parties wish to establish guidelines for the circumstances in which the use of electronic musical instruments should and should not be acceptable in orchestras within the scope of this Agreement. They also wish to clarify the relationship between the clause in the Agreement that covers this (clause 13) and the clause covering the Use Of Recorded Music (clause 5.4).

- 1 The existing understanding of electronic musical instruments in clause 13 is to be retained.
- 2 SOLT recognises that the MU wishes to avoid the use of smaller orchestras as an end in itself particularly by the increased use of technology.
- 3 The MU recognises that SOLT wishes to maintain the situation that it is an individual Manager's choice as to the way in which they choose to mount a production.
- 4 The MU will not object to the use of electronic musical instruments in a non-musical play. See clause 5.4
- 5 The MU will not object to the use of electronic musical instruments in a musical context where such instruments would normally be used to create the sounds.
- 6 In the case of transfers or revivals of a production the MU will be entitled to raise objections on the basis of the use of electronic musical instruments used solely to reduce the numbers originally used.
- 7 In the case of such objections, greater weight should be placed in cases where a whole section (in the conventional "strings"/"woodwind"/"brass"/"rhythm" sense) is replaced than where numbers are generally reduced and "filled out" by the use of electronic musical instruments.
- 8 In the case of such objections, greater weight should be placed in cases where the numbers used are out of scale with the overall scale of the production and theatre in question. However the parties wish to avoid any disputes over the actual numbers that could be accommodated in any given pit.

- 9 In the case of such objections, greater weight should be placed in cases where the technology proposed is more extensive than when it is less extensive within the gamut of possible solutions then available. In other words the "virtual orchestra" end of the solution scale would currently require a more comprehensive justification than a straightforward use of say a synthesiser.
- 10 Where the entire musical vocabulary of a production differs from the original then any comparisons should be made with the intended "new genre" rather than the original. So a production of Carousel set in a mining village in Yorkshire at the turn of the century could justifiably re-orchestrate to substantially a brass band without objection.
- 11 The parties agree that within any use of electronic musical instruments the use of "pre-recorded sounds" as set out in clause 13 does not contravene clause 5.4 and that the intent of Clause 13 is the recording of a band – or sections of a band (which may or may not contain electronic musical instruments) to meet the needs of the production.

APPENDIX 3 – CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE USE OF DEPUTIES IN THE WEST END

Whilst the Musician is engaged and has undertaken under clause 6.1 of this Agreement to be available for all rehearsals and performances, all parties recognise the usefulness of a properly regulated Deputies Procedure.

- 1 Supervision of Deputies Procedure
Manager shall notify to the Musicians engaged on a production a suitable member of the music staff or Management who will co-ordinate the use of Deputies. Irrespective of their actual title they are referred to herein as the "Deputies Supervisor", such person to be identified in the Local Rules.
- 2 Responsibility¹³
Each Musician is responsible for the arrangement of their approved Deputies to cover for them when they are absent. Whilst this may be facilitated by the use of the 'fixer' or Orchestral Manager, the primary responsibility will lie with the Musician.
- 3 Approval
No Deputy may be used by a Musician unless they have been approved by the Deputies Supervisor; which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. An approved Deputy will have sat-in on an agreed number of performances or rehearsals in accordance with the Local Rules before they first deputise.
- 4 Payment
Ordinarily, the Musician is responsible for the payment of all Deputies. In the event that the Musician is receiving sick-pay, this will be paid to the Musician in addition to their basic salary.
- 5 Local Rules
The Musician undertakes to comply with such local rules governing such things as the number of sit-ins prior to deputising, the number of first time Deputies, the number of Deputies per section or the total number of Deputies per performance. Local rules, which must be reasonable, will be determined and submitted to the MU in the name of the Manager before contract. In the event of a dispute regarding local rules the matter may be referred to a SOLT/MU Conciliation Board. As a guideline any such rules, which may be subject to review at the request of either party after contract, shall be framed so as to maintain the musical standards of the Production without unduly inhibiting the maintenance of a suitable pool of Deputies.

Where the Manager dictates that a Deputy sits in for more than one performance or rehearsal, the Manager shall pay the Deputy's fee for the second and any subsequent sit in calls for that chair. The Musician should check the suitability of the proposed new Deputy before engaging them to sit in.

6 Other Approved Absence

In order to build up and maintain a suitable pool of Deputies for a production the Manager recognises that there needs to be the opportunity to the Deputies to perform in the Production on an on-going basis. To this end the Manager agrees to additional use of Deputies within the Production in accordance with the following additional stipulations:

The Musician agrees not to use Deputies in this way for more than 40% or more of the performances given in a 26 week period except when sick or on holiday. Such periods to run concurrently within the holiday pay periods as set out in clause 8.3.1 of the Agreement.

7 Unapproved Absence

The Musician has no rights to use a Deputy outside those set above. In the event of a Musician exceeding the limit set out above the Manager shall have the right to invoke the Conciliation, Grievance & Disciplinary Procedures (see Appendices).

8 Waiver

The Manager, in consultation with the Deputies Supervisor and the MU shall have the right to waive or reintroduce this Code of Conduct if the musical integrity of the Production will not be impaired.

APPENDIX 4 – DISCIPLINARY AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

1 Purpose and Scope

The Disciplinary Procedure is designed to help and encourage all Musicians to achieve and maintain standards of conduct, attendance and job performance and set out the Manager's framework for dealing with disciplinary matters. The same procedure applies to all Musicians and the aim is to ensure consistent and fair treatment for all. The Disciplinary Procedure does not apply to proposed redundancies or genuine sickness absences.

The Grievance Procedure enables all Musicians to bring to the Manager's attention any grievance relating to their engagement and to try to resolve such matters satisfactorily. Grievance proceedings will, so far as is reasonably practicable, be kept confidential.

2 Principles

No disciplinary action will be taken until the matter at issue has been fully investigated and Musicians have been given the opportunity to respond.

The Musician will not normally be dismissed for a first breach of discipline except in the case of gross misconduct or very serious breach of discipline when the sanction will be dismissal without notice or payment in lieu of notice.

The Musician will have the right to appeal against any disciplinary sanction imposed or the decision of any grievance meeting.

3 General Provisions

So far as applicable to a particular circumstance, the following requirements apply to the Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures.

¹³ Health and safety checklists for Deputies needs to be met and can be seen on page 31 of this Agreement.

4 Timetable

Each step and action under the Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures must be taken without unreasonable delay.

5 Right To Be Accompanied

The Musician has the right to be accompanied at any disciplinary or grievance meeting by a fellow Musician or trade union representative who may make representations on his/her behalf provided the Musician expressly authorises this at the beginning of the relevant meeting. However the Musician's companion will not be able to answer questions put to the Musician during the course of the meeting. This right applies to all stages of the disciplinary and grievance process including appeals.

6 Meetings

- 6.1 The timing and location of meetings must be reasonable.
- 6.2 Meetings must be conducted in a manner that enables both the Manager and the Musician to explain their case.
- 6.3 The Manager will endeavour to ensure that the meeting is in a private location and that there are no interruptions.
- 6.4 The Manager should advise the Musician of the right to be accompanied in the written notification of the meeting.
- 6.5 The length of time between the written notification and the meeting should be long enough to allow the Musician to prepare for the meeting. The Musician must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting and if he/she or his/her companion cannot attend on the date suggested he/she must notify his/her head of department/relevant Manager/Contractor and propose an alternative date for the meeting to be held within 5 working days of the original proposed date.
- 6.6 No meeting will take place unless the complainant has informed the other party in writing of the cause of the complaint and the other party has had the opportunity to consider a response to the complaint.

7 Records

- 7.1 During the disciplinary or grievance process the Manager will keep written records which may include: the nature of the complaint or the grievance raised; a copy of the written complaint or grievance; the Musician's defence; the Manager's response; findings made; any action taken or sanction imposed and the reasons for it; any grievances raised during a disciplinary process; whether there was an appeal and if so the outcome; any subsequent developments.
- 7.2 Such records will be kept on a confidential basis so far as is reasonably practicable and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

8 Disability

If the Musician has a difficulty at any stage of the procedure because of a disability, the Musician should discuss the situation with the Manager as soon as possible, who will give consideration to what if any reasonable adjustments may be required.

9 Potential Disciplinary Sanctions

Formal disciplinary action may result in the following disciplinary sanctions being imposed:

9.1 Verbal Warning

If conduct or performance does not meet acceptable standards the Musician may be given a formal verbal warning. A note of the verbal warning will be kept on the Musician's personnel file but will usually be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after three months subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

9.2 Written Warning

If the misconduct or poor performance is more serious, a formal written warning may be given to the Musician. This will give details of the complaint, the improvement or change in behaviour required and the timescale allowed for this, and state that a final written warning may be considered if there is no sustained satisfactory improvement or change. A copy of this written warning will be kept on the Musician's personnel file but will usually be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after six months subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

9.3 Final Written Warning

If the offence is serious or there is a failure to improve performance or conduct during the currency of a prior warning, a final written warning may be given to the Musician. This will give details of the complaint, the improvement required and the timescale. It will also warn that failure to improve may lead to dismissal. A copy of this written warning will be kept on the Musician's personnel file but will be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after twelve months (although in exceptional cases the period may be longer, but in any event no longer than 18 months) subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

9.4 Dismissal Or Other Sanction

9.4.1 In certain circumstances, for example a failure to improve conduct or performance where a previous warning has been given or where there is an act of gross misconduct or a serious failure to perform, the disciplinary sanction may be dismissal or the Manager may take some other action short of dismissal such as disciplinary suspension without pay for up to a maximum of five working days.

9.4.2 If some sanction short of dismissal is imposed, the Musician will receive details of the complaint, and will be warned that dismissal could result if there is no satisfactory improvement. A copy of this written warning will be kept on the Musician's personnel file but will be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after twelve months (although in exceptional cases the period may be longer, but in any event no longer than 18 months) subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

9.5 Gross Misconduct

The following list provides examples of offences which are normally regarded as gross misconduct. This list is not exhaustive and other serious misconduct may also lead to summary dismissal:

9.5.1 theft, fraud, deliberate falsification of records, dishonesty, fighting, assault, violence, unauthorised possession of property belonging to the Manager, damage to the Manager's property, incapacity for work due to being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs, serious negligence which causes unacceptable loss, damage or injury, serious act of insubordination, misuse of confidential information, unauthorised entry to computer records, conviction for a criminal offence arising from or relating to the Musician's work for the Manager, conduct whether inside or outside working hours which may bring the Manager's reputation into disrepute, serious or persistent gross neglect of duties or any material breach or non-observance of those duties – in particular refusal to obey reasonable instructions, unauthorised absence from work (including conduct inconsistent with an alleged sickness, injury or other incapacity).

9.5.2 If the Musician is accused of an act of gross misconduct, the Musician may be suspended from work on full pay while the Manager investigates the alleged offence. If, on completion of the investigation and the Disciplinary Procedure, the Manager is satisfied that gross misconduct has occurred, the result will normally be summary dismissal without notice or payment in lieu of notice.

10 GENERAL

10.1 Following a disciplinary meeting, before making the decision on what disciplinary sanction it should impose, the Manager will take into account the Musician's disciplinary and general engagement records, length of service and the explanation given by the Musician at the disciplinary meeting.

10.2 Before implementing any of the formal sanctions set out above, including after a review of the Musician's conduct or performance, the Disciplinary Procedure set out below will normally be followed.

10.3 At the time of advising the Musician of any sanction to be imposed the Manager should also advise the Musician of the right of appeal.

11 DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE11.1 Investigation

Where a potential disciplinary matter arises the Manager will endeavour to make necessary investigations to establish the facts fully and promptly. Having carried out such preliminary investigations the Manager will decide whether to take no further action or deal with the matter informally or arrange for the matter to be handled on a formal basis. The Manager may choose to hold an investigatory meeting (as opposed to a disciplinary meeting) with the Musician solely to establish the facts of the case.

11.2 Suspension

In instances which the Manager considers to be particularly serious (e.g. in cases involving alleged gross misconduct, where relationships have broken down or there is a risk to the Manager's responsibilities to third parties or the Manager's property), the Musician may be suspended from work temporarily on full pay whilst an unhindered investigation is carried out. Any precautionary suspension of this kind will be reviewed as soon as possible and will not normally exceed 10 working days. Any suspension on this basis should not be considered as a disciplinary sanction or an indication of prejudgement of the matter.

11.3 Formal Procedure

If the Manager decides to take formal action, the following procedure will be followed:

11.4 Statement Of Grounds For Action And Invitation To Meeting

The Manager will prepare a written statement setting out the Musician's alleged conduct or capability or poor performance, or other circumstances, which may result in a disciplinary sanction (including dismissal) being imposed. The statement will be sent to the Musician who will be invited to attend a meeting to discuss the matter. The statement will contain sufficient detail and any relevant accompanying evidence to enable the Musician to prepare for the meeting.

11.5 Meeting

The complaint will be fully explained to the Musician at the meeting and the Manager will go through the evidence that has been gathered. The Musician can make representations and explain his/her view of the situation and answer any allegations that have been made. The Musician will be allowed to ask questions and present evidence. If appropriate the Musician can call witnesses and will be given an opportunity to raise points about any information provided by witnesses. If the Musician challenges the evidence of a witness who is not present at the meeting, the Manager should consider adjourning the meeting to re-interview the witness in the light of any new information presented by the Musician. No disciplinary sanction will be imposed until the meeting has taken place.

11.6 Notification Of Decision

After the meeting the Musician will be informed of the Manager's decision. This will be communicated to the Musician in writing within 10 working days of the meeting and the Musician will be notified of his/her right to appeal against the decision if he/she is not satisfied with it. If the decision taken is dismissal the Musician will also be provided with written reasons for dismissal, the date on which the engagement will terminate and the appropriate period of notice (if applicable). If it is not possible for the Manager to respond with his/her decision within 10 working days the Manager will give an explanation to the Musician for the delay and inform him/her when a response can be expected.

11.7 Appeal

The Musician has the right to appeal against any disciplinary sanction imposed on him/her.

12 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

12.1 Informal Resolution Of Grievances

12.1.1 The Manager recognises that misunderstandings or grievances may sometimes occur. It is most important that these grievances are brought out into the open and resolved as fairly, consistently and speedily as possible. In most cases this can be done on an entirely informal basis.

12.1.2 Any grievance should, in the first instance, be raised with the Musician's head of department/relevant Manager/Contractor (or, where that person is the subject of the grievance, that person's line manager) who should discuss the matter with the Musician informally within two working days of it being raised.

12.2 Formal Resolution Of Grievances

Where the grievance cannot be resolved informally and the Musician has a complaint, concern or problem about action which the Manager has taken or is contemplating taking in relation to the Musician or the Musician has a personal grievance or a complaint about any work-related matter which affects his/her efficiency at work, it should be dealt with under the formal Grievance Procedure below.

12.3 Formal Grievance Procedure

12.3.1 Statement Of Grievance

The Musician must set out, in a written statement, his/her grievance and send the statement to his/her head of department/relevant Manager/Contractor (or, where that person is the subject of the grievance, that person's line manager). The Musician will be invited to attend a meeting in order to discuss the grievance.

12.3.2 Meeting

The Musician will be permitted to explain his/her complaint and then say how he/she believes it should be settled.

12.3.3 Notification of Decision

After the meeting the Musician will be informed of the Manager's decision. This will be communicated to the Musician in writing within 10 working days of the meeting and the Musician will be notified of his/her right to appeal against the decision if he/she is not satisfied with it. If it is not possible for the Manager to respond with his/her decision within 10 working days the Manager will give an explanation to the Musician for the delay and inform him/her when a response can be expected.

12.4 Appeal

The Musician has the right to appeal against the findings of a grievance meeting.

12.4.1 Appeals

The Musician has a right to appeal against the finding of a disciplinary or grievance meeting.

12.4.2 If the Musician wishes to appeal, he/she must inform the Manager in writing within 5 working days of receiving the decision. The Musician will then be invited to attend another meeting.

12.4.3 Where possible the person who made the original disciplinary or grievance decision will not be involved in the decision-making process of the appeal. The appeal will be heard by an appropriate member of senior management. If the appeal relates to a dismissal it will be heard by a member of the Manager's Board.

12.4.4 After the appeal meeting the Musician will be informed of the Manager's final decision and this will be communicated to the Musician within 10 working days of the meeting. If it is not possible for the Manager to respond with his/her decision within 10 working days the Manager will give an explanation to the Musician for the delay and inform him/her when a response can be expected.

12.4.5 Where the Musician appeals against any disciplinary sanction imposed on him/her, the original disciplinary decision (including a decision to dismiss) will be implemented pending the appeal meeting and its outcome.

APPENDIX 5 – CONCILIATION PROCEDURE

In the event of any dispute between a Management and a Musician and/or the MU arising out of this Agreement and if such dispute cannot be resolved between the parties thereto within a reasonable time then at the request of either party it shall be referred to a Conciliation Board (consisting of an equal number of representatives from SOLT and the MU) which shall meet and give a decision with the utmost despatch and in any event within not more than 7 days (unless otherwise agreed between the parties) and such decision shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute.

Provided that if at any such meeting of a Board no decision is reached, then at the request of either SOLT's or the MU representatives a further meeting shall be convened as soon as possible of a Board under the chairmanship of such independent Chairman as shall be agreed by the SOLT's and the MU representatives or (in default of agreement) as shall be appointed by ACAS. The power of the Chairman shall be limited to that of recommendation only unless it is specifically agreed between SOLT and the MU that he/she shall have power to make a binding award to this Agreement.

APPENDIX 6 – HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Manager shall provide the following minimum requirements prior to the opening of the production wherever possible and ideally at the first seating call or next full company rehearsal. These requirements are (but not limited to):

- 1 Adequate band-room facilities with enough seating, wherever possible, for all Musicians.

- 2 Separate changing facilities for male and female Musicians.
- 3 Lockable storage for all Musicians' personal belongings.
- 4 Separate male and female toilets with at least one toilet/wash station with running hot and cold water to be kept in a clean and orderly condition.
- 5 Readily accessible drinking water.
- 6 A commitment to undertake a fire/evacuation drill for the Musicians on the first seating call of the production and at least annually thereafter.
- 7 The Manager should engage with the MU representative or with an MU Safety Officer in pre-production Health and Safety discussions.
- 8 Copies of risk assessments affecting Musicians should be provided by the Manager as soon as is reasonably practicable.

APPENDIX 7 – HEALTH AND SAFETY CHECKLIST FOR DEPUTIES

- 1 Deputies should make sure they are familiar with the theatre's fire and emergency procedure by reading the notices in the building.
- 2 Deputies are advised to see theatre notice board for the current list of first aiders and general health & safety advice.
- 3 Band room facilities and lockable storage are available. Instruments stored overnight should be secured [location].
- 4 Deputies using their own portable electrical equipment should take steps to ensure this equipment is properly checked, tested and safe.
- 5 If you are involved in an accident or near miss whilst in the theatre this should be reported to the MU Health and Safety rep and in the accident book held at stage door.
- 6 You should ask to get copies of health & safety advice produced by the Manager – usually through the person for whom you are acting as dep. If they cannot provide these contact the MU Health & Safety rep.
- 7 If the Manager has carried out a risk assessment which has found specific risks for the person for whom you are acting as dep and has determined that certain measures need to be carried out you should be made aware of these. This is particularly relevant in respect of Control of Noise at Work regulations. In the first instance ask the person you are depping for and if they cannot assist you ask the MU Health & Safety rep.
- 8 If you have any specific questions or concerns about Health & Safety issues contact the MU Health & Safety rep.
- 9 You are reminded that it is your legal duty to take reasonable care of your own Health & Safety, to co-operate with the regular player's Manager on H&S, and to take reasonable care not to put other people at risk by your actions. It is the Manager's duty to provide you with a safe place of work and not expose you to unreasonable risks.

Copies of all risk assessments affecting Musicians are available to the Dep on request from the MU Health and Safety rep or from the MU London Office on 020 7840 5532 / london@theMU.org.
